DEDICATION

PAST MEMORIES AND FUTURE HOPES

We want to remember the things that have been precious, worthwhile, and pleasurable. But we live in a world of war and hate. So we hope for peace and a little more love.

"Harold, we've got to stop meeting like this."

"I thought you had to be 21 to look through these things."

"So YOU were the one who stole my gym trunks."

"Darling, so we meet again."

"Flake off, man!"

"I wish they would use the bathroom."

Principal's Message

Clarence R. Jackson

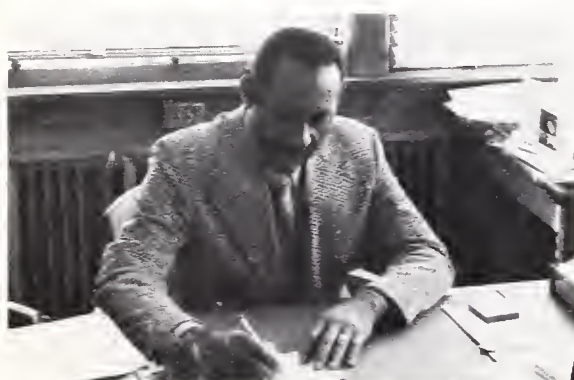

A yearbook, like a mirror, reflects what we intend to see even though the true depiction is often excluded. For those who possess this testimony of a once-in-a-lifetime era, reflections of happy, more positive recollections of junior high years come easily. But we must also remember those moments of struggles, of trials and tribulations which ultimately become underpinnings for individual success stories or lives of mediocrity, even failure.

Reflections of struggles are evident in this document-in the long tedious hours of preparation expended by Mr. Catz, his staff of students and school personnel. To all of them we owe a huge debt of gratitude.

Reflections of cooperative spirit are to be remembered for PTA, staff, parents, and general community who all contributed on significant ways.

Finally, and again like the image in the mirror, this yearbook is to become your individual yardstick against which you measure the extent of your growth from King Junior High School throughout life. Take each inch of personal success and stretch it into a mile. Good luck!

Vice Principal's Message

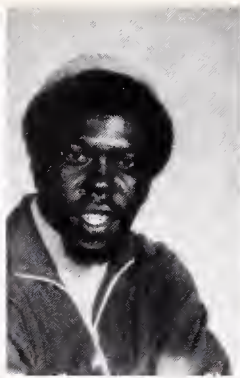

Olen A. McKinney

I wish to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the students and staff of King Junior High School for your loyalty, support, and cooperation during this school year. Together, I believe we have made much progress. However, I am sure you share with me the idea that there is room for much improvement. I encourage each of you to accept a positive and supportive attitude toward helping to make King Junior High an enjoyable and safe place to come and share ideas with each other. Remember it is not so much what King can do for you, but what you can do to help the school environment at King.

MEMOIRS OF A KING STUDENT

I remember dear old King,
 But I don't remember everything.
 There was the day I made a friend,
 And the algebra period that wouldn't end.
 Sneaking to the store in fright,
 Studying far into the night.
 Disgusting food - fights on the lawn,
 And leaving bed at the break of dawn.
 Being struck down in the halls,
 Dirty words upon the walls.
 Detention was a total drag,
 And the food here would make you gag.
 But even though my stay at King,
 Could have been a better thing.
 I really didn't mind at all.
 (But you sure won't catch me here next fall!)

Tinka Menkes

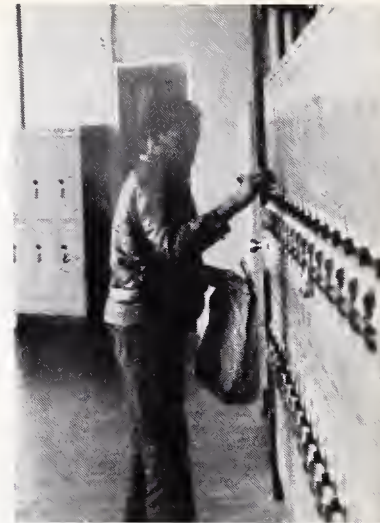

"This is hard to say but there ain't no stork."

"I don't know ... MY favorite is the kazoo."

"Trick or treat!"

"yecch ... this food is good."

"Aren't you glad you use dial?
Don't you wish everybody did?"

"Wow this is what I call Social Livin'"

"We're the MD twins!"

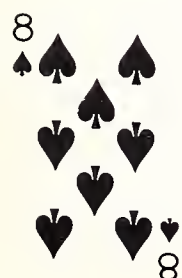

"Watch your step boy"

"Maybe you have a fever"

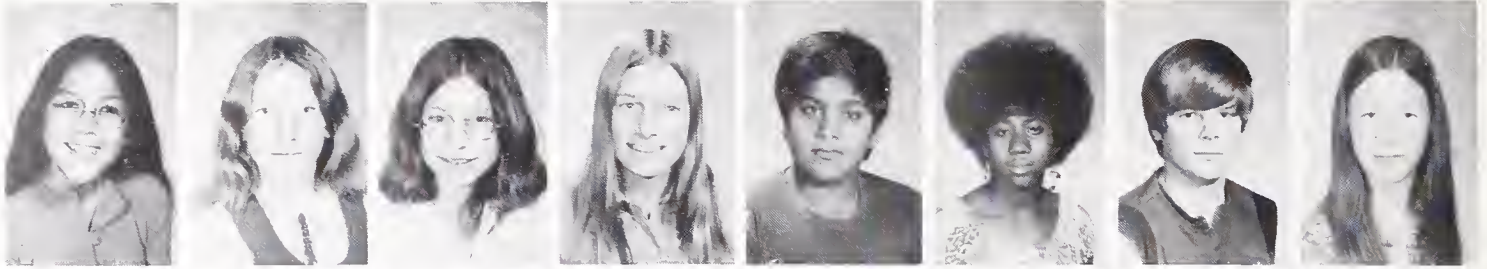

"Bigger and better"

An abstract black and white graphic featuring a series of concentric, teardrop-shaped outlines. The shapes are arranged in a way that they appear to be nested, with the word "Grade" centered within the innermost shape. The background is black, and the shapes are white, creating a high-contrast, geometric pattern. The overall composition is symmetrical and balanced, with the text "Grade" serving as the focal point.

Smith was reading insurance tables. "Say, do you know that every time I breathe a man dies?" he asked. His friend Jones replied, "Why don't you use a little mouthwash now and then?"

Customer: "This coffee tastes like mud."
Waiter: "Well, it was ground this morning."

Customer: "This restaurant must have a lovely clean kitchen."
Manager: "Thank you sir. But how did you know?"
Customer: "Everything tastes like soap."

And now, presenting the world famous pianist. . .

You just think you're cool, don't you?

When minor arthritis pain hits,
even simple things become difficult.

You sure that photographer isn't a commie spy?

Now who's the baddest?

Cheap pens!

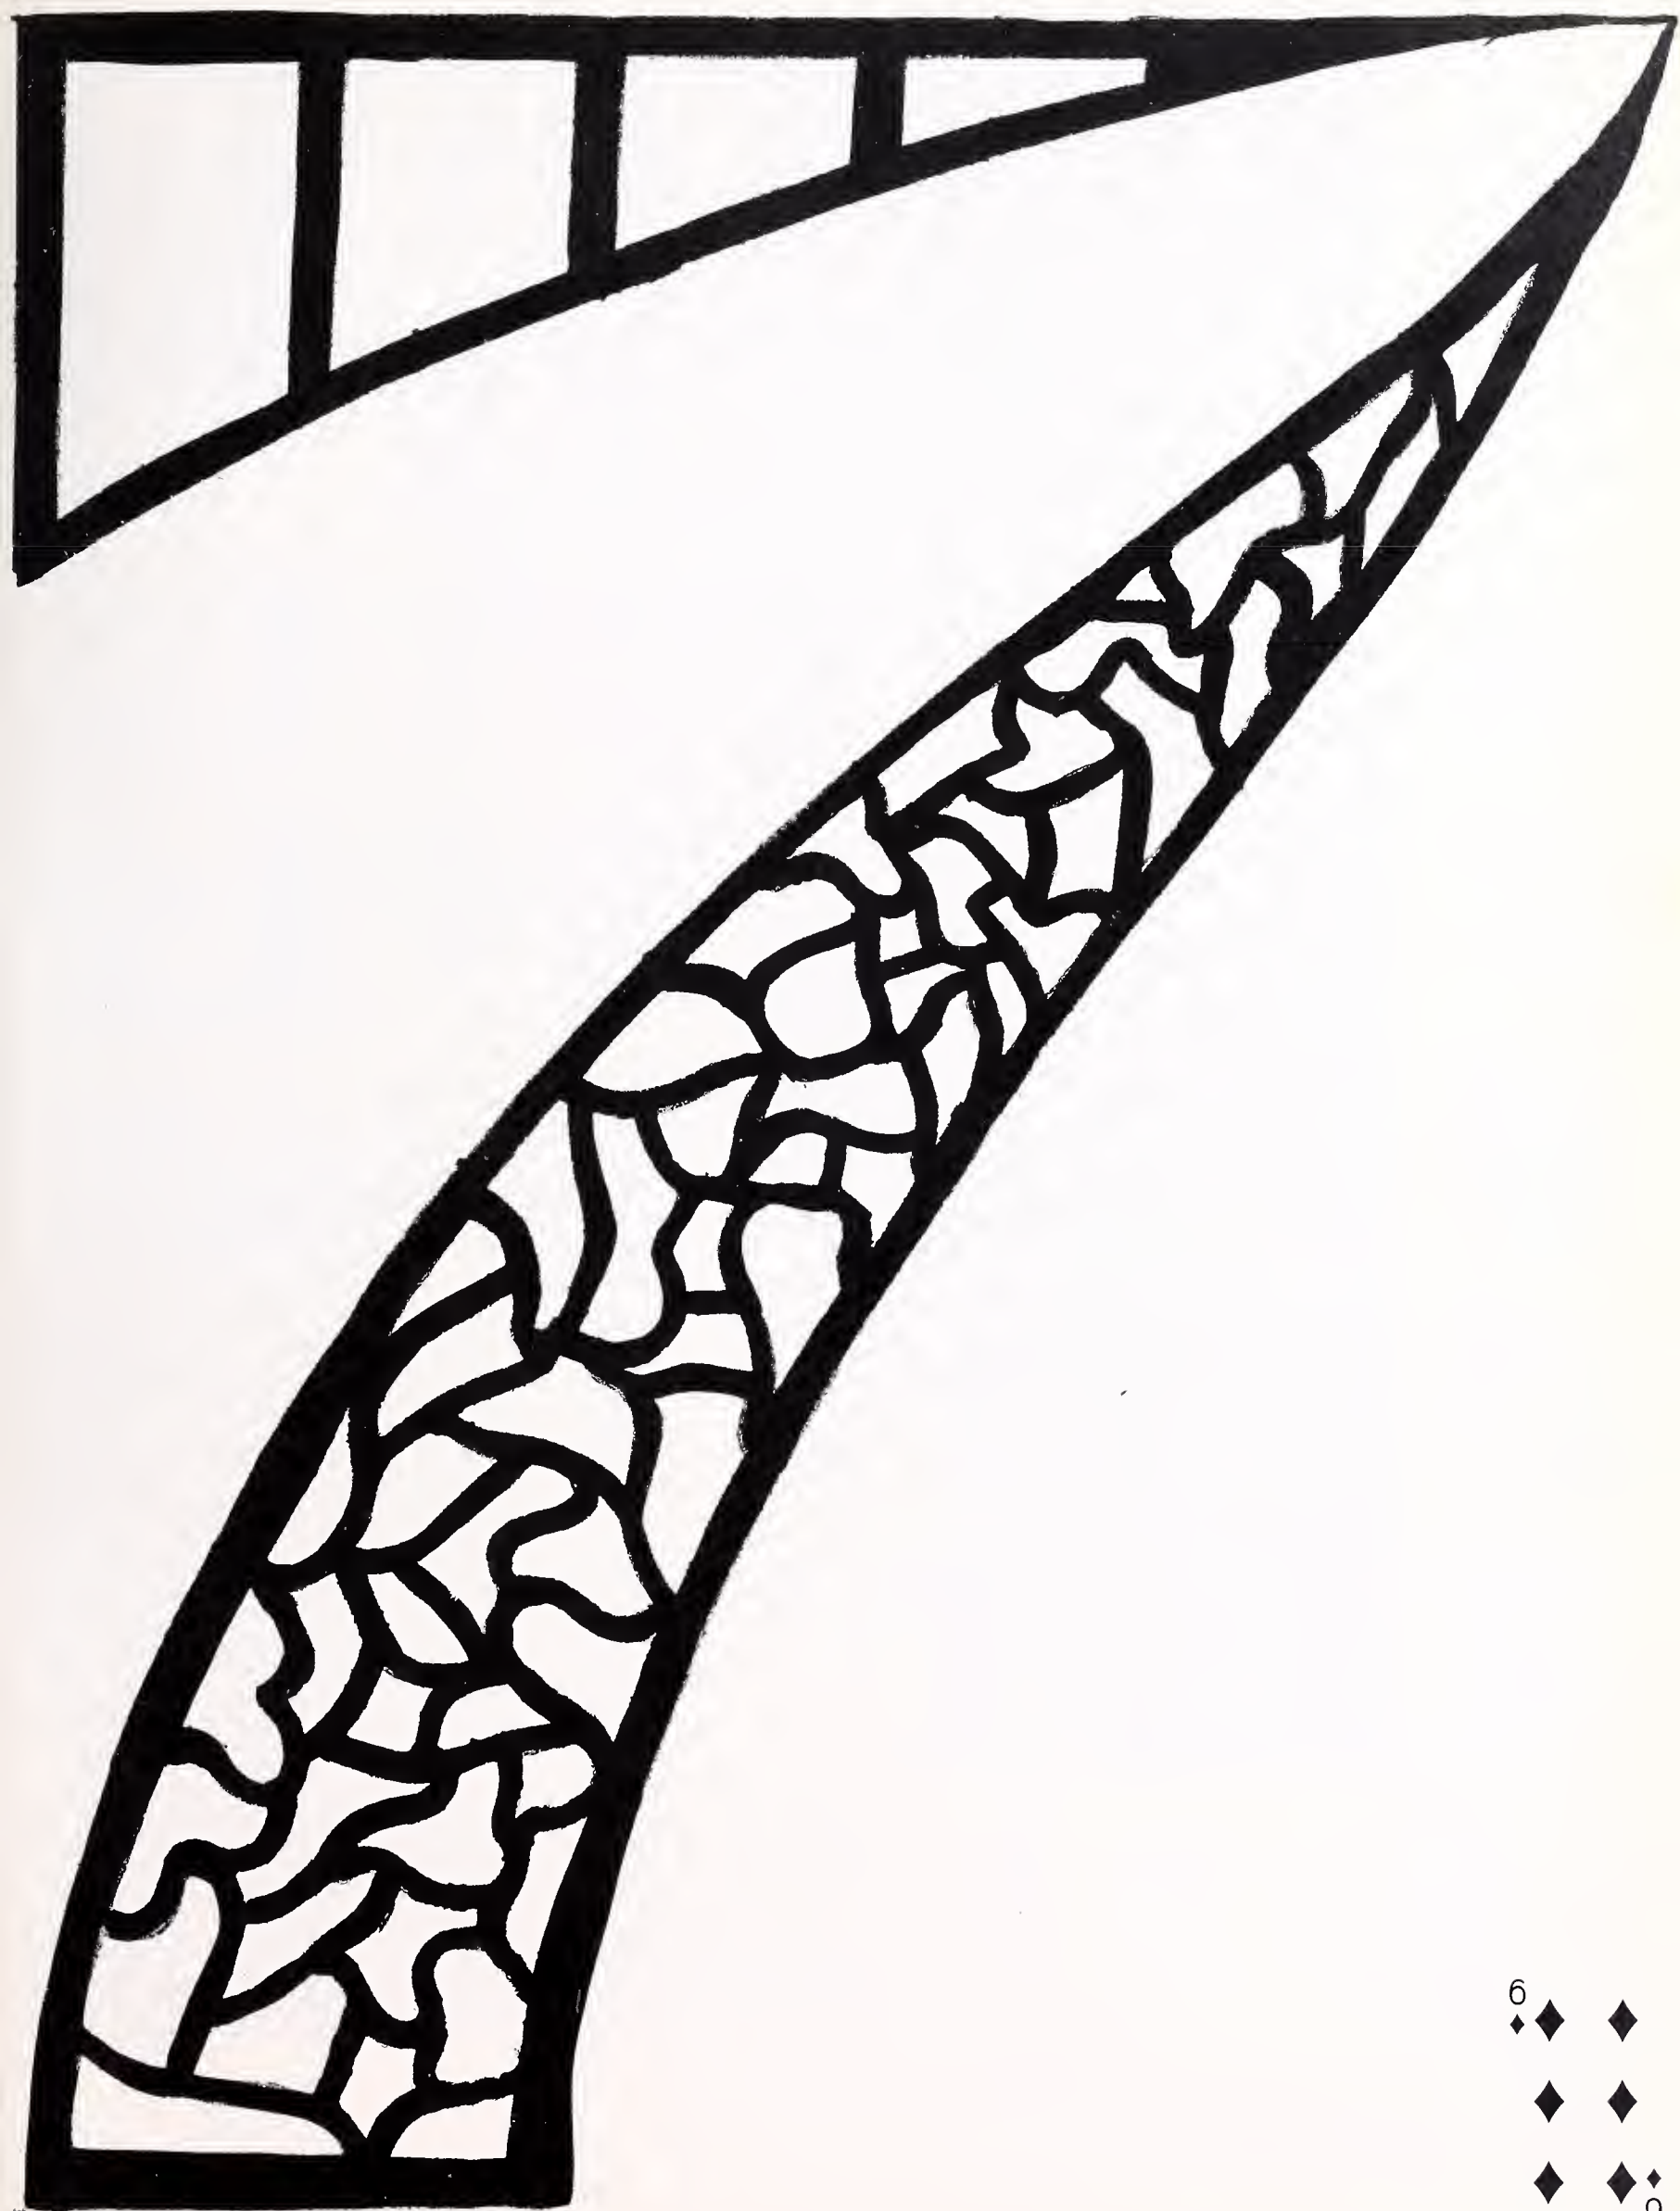

I wish he'd stop breathing down my neck!

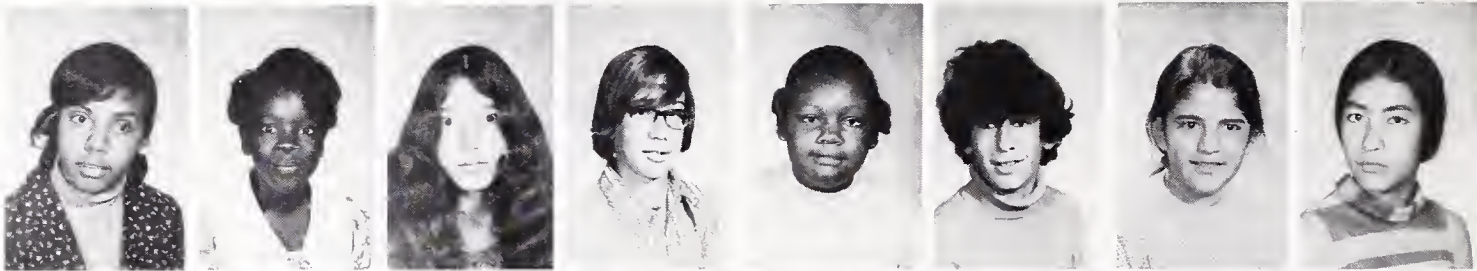

Say it again and I'll kick you!

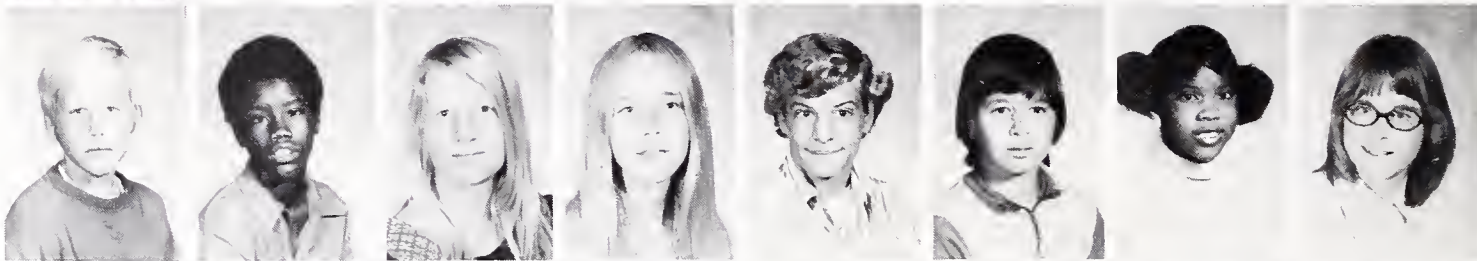

Are you going to EAT that?

We feel that this yearbook has been an experience we'll never forget. It has meant alot to us and we hope it means just as much to you. There were times we felt we weren't going to make it. But we did and we are proud of it. We are proud to know that we have done something for King Junior High. There was a great deal of fun and enjoyment, but mostly work. We really appreciate all the support everyone has given to us, because we really needed it. We want this to be a real thing, something we all can benefit by. Something we can be proud of. We hope you feel the same way. We want to grow in a way we all can appreciate. And we want to see it grow now. So, Thanks for your support.

Black is Beautiful

The Black Girls Club is an organization of interest whose purposes are to provide a medium by which girls can discuss and help solve problems they have. Questions and subjects such as dating, cosmetics, sex, drugs, cleanliness, etc. are answered. It is a means to by which girls share skills such as corn rowing, knitting, making jewelry, and trying different head ties and wraps of African fashion. Various speakers are arranged to give lectures to the girls in their interest areas.

THEY REALLY DO CARE!

Life: Past and Future

Memories fade in my mind
As a great wave blunders
And thunders against the rocks

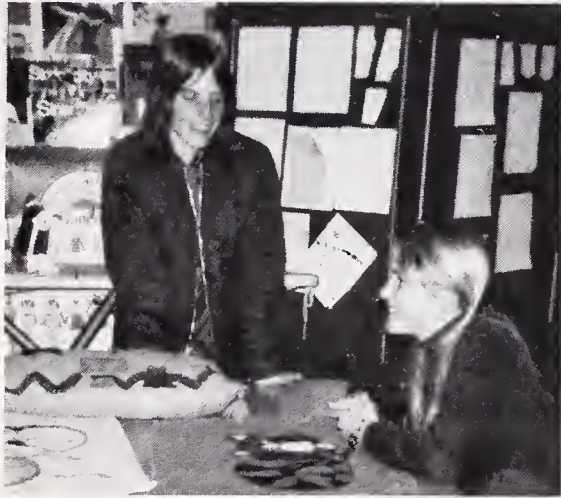

Then memories leave me,
As abruptly as the great wave.
Pulls its massive sheet
Of flowing waters from the shore

Memories can be happy
As a fairyland on a summer day.
And memories
Can be as doomed and full of
Hatred as the raging waters

I think about the future.
And forget the past.
Whatever is done is done
My past will be precious to me
Through my years

I'll forget my sorrow and griefs
I'll think about what I'll be
I'll let my past stand behind me
And my future
Lead me on

Contrasts

I wake up-in the sunshine-the first day-
The first day-of 7th grade
Fearful scared shy small
Such a big place
so many people.

"Don't lose your schedule"
"Go to 1ST and then 3rd and skip 2nd" ...
And on and on and on.
How do I get there?
Where is that?

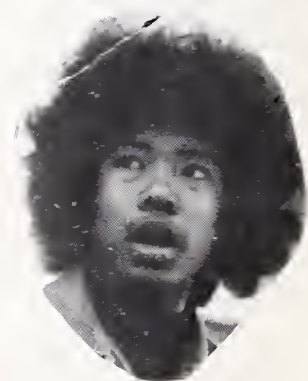

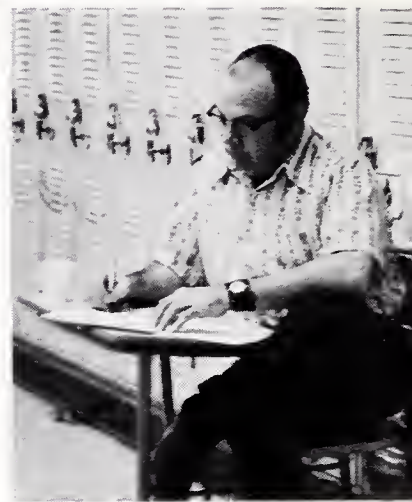

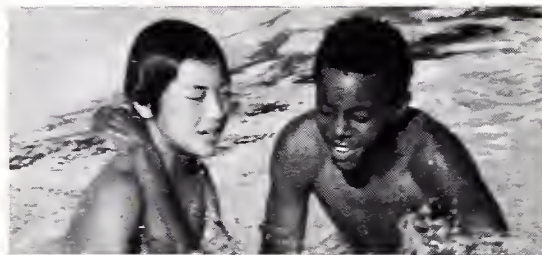

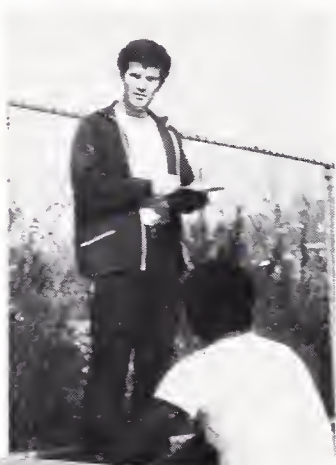

I rush through the crowded halls
Meeting new people with nervous smiles
Watching out for the gigantic 8th graders
Who proudly walk by, cool and show

End of day, first day
as I let out a sigh
on a crowded bus
that I'll be on for 2 years

8th grade first day cool and slow and calm
I look way down at the meek little 7th
graders of course,
I couldn't ever of been like that, no,
not I

OUR P.T.A.

President's Message

I would like to take this time and space to thank the many people who have helped me this year. Special thanks and appreciation to the Executive Board, which is composed of interested parents, who have gone beyond their duty as just members of our PTA, who have worked hard to try and bring forth suggestions, ideas and constructive complaints to make this year as successful as I feel it was.

My many thanks to the school administration staff, who have been more than helpful, and to you the parents, who have joined the PTA, attended our meetings and who have helped work on many of our other activities.

I feel that as President this year, I have learned more about parents, students and their personal feelings, as to what could and we hope will be done next year to better the communication gap between Parents, Faculty and Students.
